

Title I Attestation 2019-2020

The Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) requires that teachers must meet applicable State certification and licensure requirements, including any requirements for certification obtained through alternative routes to certification. However, paraprofessionals are still required to meet the definition of “highly qualified” as currently defined by federal law.

Check all that apply (attach an explanation as needed):

- X All newly hired teachers are properly certified for their teaching assignment per the SCDE’s Required Credentials for Professional Staff Members in the Instructional Programs of South Carolina’s Public Schools document.
- X All existing teachers are properly certified for their teaching assignment per the SCDE’s Required Credentials for Professional Staff Members in the Instructional Programs of South Carolina’s Public Schools document.
- X All newly hired paraprofessionals meet the definition of “highly-qualified”.
- X All existing paraprofessionals meet the definition of “highly-qualified”.
- X All paraprofessionals performing instructional duties as defined in ESSA are supervised by a certified teacher or staff member.

The following teachers are not properly certified and/or the following paraprofessionals are not highly qualified as defined by ESSA:

I, Joan Tye, attest that

 (Name of Title I School Principal)
Manchester Elementary School

 (Name of Title I School)

X is is not in compliance with the requirements of ESSA, Section 1111(g)(1)(B).

Joan Tye

 (Principal’s Signature)

9/27/19

 (Date Signed)

The signature above attests that the school is in compliance with the requirements of ESSA for teachers and paraprofessionals. Copies of attestation shall be maintained at each school operating a program under Title I and at the main office of the LEA and shall be made available to any member of the general public on request.
